

SUSTAINABILITY SOCIALIST ZOURNII

WWW.ZOURNII.CO.IN

Integrity : Zournii

Honourable Shri Ram Naik is former Governor of Uttar Pradesh. Shri Naik was felicitated with 'National Eminence Award' in Mumbai by Pujyasri Jayendra Saraswati Swamigal of His Holiness Jagadguru Sankaracharya of Kanchi Kamakoti Peetam. Shri Naik was the Cabinet Minister of Petroleum & Natural Gas in the Government led by late Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee. In the earlier Cabinet, he was Minister of State for Railways (Independent Charge), Home Affairs, Planning & Programme Implementation and Parliamentary Affairs. He was a member of BJP National Executive Committee from its inception in 1980 and also the National Convener of 'Good Governance Cell' specially constituted to enhance efficiency and performance of Ministers in BJP ruled states. Shri Ram Naik who represented North Mumbai Lok Sabha Constituency from Maharashtra as a BJP MP has a track record of getting elected successively for five terms. Shri Ram Naik, a seasoned Parliamentarian was the Chairman of the prestigious Public Accounts Committee in 1995-96. He was the Chief Whip of BJP in the 11th Lok Sabha. He also contributed significantly in the Parliamentary debates as well as in important committees like Joint Parliamentary Committees for Security Scam and Empowerment of Women, Railway Convention Committee, etc. He was also a member of the Chairman's Panel to preside over the Lok Sabha proceedings. Shri Naik has been instrumental in singing 'Vande Mataram' and 'Jana Gana Mana' in the Parliament from the year 1992. Shri Ram Naik secured B.Com. degree in 1954 from Brihan Maharashtra College of Commerce, Pune and LL.B. degree in 1958 from Kishanchand Chellaram Law College, Mumbai. Shri Naik, a winner of successive eight elections, has also won over the serious disease of Cancer in 1994. He has devoted full time for the Party and also the social work stating that in recovery from Cancer, he got the 'bonus' of his life and that he would utilize it in the Service of the Nation. He has been a Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh R.S.S. activist from his childhood. Shri Naik also penned his memoirs in the widely circulated marathi daily "Sakal" later published book Charaiveti.

Smt Seema Goyal is very kind, generous, social worker, reformer, sociologist, administrator, leader in women empowerment & world peace. In Mumbai Suburban areas - Borivali, Dahisar, Magathane, Kandivali East, Charkop, Malad West - She worked for jan vishwas, minimum government, maximum governance, social upliftment of weakest citizens, reducing/ending custom of dowry, ending women trafficking, ending domestic violence against women, ending linguistic discrimination, improving social justice, creating jobs for women so that every women can live respectful life, education for girl child, improving law & order so that every child can get good education & work for national also global growth. She respect Jainism - Svetambara & Digambara, supported several NGO's, government agencies, social workers in Mumbai North who are really working on ground for social welfare, improving life of weakest citizens. Being a social worker she made strong positive impact in the life of common citizens of Mumbai North. She is continuing the good work for social upliftment in line with Honourable Shri Vedprakash Prithvinath Goyal. She also worked on some international projects for social good, sustainable development, wcd with United Nations, UNICEF.