

PM INDIA

Leader of Common Citizens of India Shri Narendra Damodardas Modi

Common citizens of India, citizens in different countries know the dedication of Namo for positively transforming the life of billions of Indians. No politician is flawless but when an individual work day and night for the welfare of common citizens, things change, positive development, sustainable development. Soon citizens of India will see more positive development in all the cities, villages in all states of India. What common citizens not know - Namo is not alone but Namo and Shri Amit Shah are one positive force who are taking India towards the path of growth, discipline, national, international amendments for improving the life of billions of common citizens of India/World. In India many other politicians are on similar path of doing social good, citizen welfare for billions of common citizens of India. Here is brief white paper which covers how different leaders will add value in strengthening common citizens of India with Good Governance. PM/HM are surrounded by ministers/bureaucrats of different vision in central government and all states of India but they are encouraging them all for uniting their efforts and resources for global social good, sustainable development - unified vision.

Following is list of global social leaders of India and what qualities they are having similar to Prime Minister of India. What value they will add in India and different countries worldwide if they will become Prime Minister of India in future.

Shri Yogi Adityanath

If in future Shri Yogi Adityanath will become Prime Minister of India. India will see immense opportunity for development, redevelopment, organised well planned cities with lawful citizens and lawful government employees in all departments, all states of India. No or zero corruption/crime in all states of India. India will develop strong cultural relations with different countries worldwide, which will further increase global ethical economic cooperation.

Shri Piyush Vedprakash Goyal

If in future Shri Piyush Vedprakash Goyal will become Prime Minister of India. Citizens in different countries worldwide will see free trade, ganges of commerce, no conflict, no discrimination, no crime but global peace, river of commerce in all states of India, multi country joint collaboration in all sectors to add value in life of common citizens, make them atmanirbhar, disciplined citizens. Zero tariff worldwide. Taking India miles ahead. He is Margdarshak of India.

Dr.S.Jaishankar

If in future Dr.S.Jaishankar will become Prime Minister of India. His aura as diplomatic world leader will increase more. Citizens will become more educated, more compassionate. India will become more organised with natural, developed resources and its utilisation will be more human centric, increasing global good, his work will motivate all countries worldwide to be lawful, peaceful & responsible. Honest bureaurats/ ministers will increase all India development.

Shri Nitin Jairam Gadkari

If in future Shri Nitin Jairam Gadkari will become Prime Minister of India. Infrastructure development will be more visible covering all villages, cities in all states of India. He will end corruption in development of roads, bridges, rail tracks. He will bring laws for making government employees, construction companies equally responsible for quality. He will make sure to adapt green sustainable construction, biofuel - comprehensive infrastructure development.

Shri Ashwini Vaishnaw

If in future Shri Ashwini Vaishnaw will become Prime Minister of India. All bureaucrats - IAS, IPS, IFS, IRS of all ranks in central and state government, all ministers will leave corruption permanently and become loyal to our country India. Every government employee, minister, every common citizen will become loyal to Prime Minister of India. He will protect all citizens worldwide, which will further increase sustainable growth. Ai for global good/peace.

Honourable Nirmala Sitharaman

If in future Honourable Nirmala Sitharaman will become Prime Minister of India. She will make India more organised, zero food wastage, no hunger, availability of clean drinking water for all citizens of India. Indian citizens will choose education, development of country instead of wasting resources. She will increase concept of Viksit Bharat, Atmanirbhar Bharat by protecting human life and wild life, systematic sustainable development of cities in all states of India.

Honourable Radhika Goyal

If in future Honourable Radhika Goyal will become Prime Minister of India. All Indians will be thankful. All citizens worldwide will see sustainable development, she will increase global good, protecting life of all citizens worldwide. She will increase greenery + industry, protect farmers, wildlife, give strength to weakest citizens in all countries worldwide. Her statement will become world law, it will be for the betterment of the world. She will protect earth.

Shri KR Naidu

If in future Shri Kinjarapu Rammohan Naidu will become Prime Minister of India. It will boost education sector in India and worldwide, making citizens more useful for the country and world. His ability to take responsibility in most difficult times will continue to make him global leader for reducing/ending national and international conflicts. He will bring politics of development, no politicians will be allowed to re-participate in elections if no development in their region.

Honourable Diya Kumari

If in future Honourable Diya Kumari will become Prime Minister of India. She will be most powerful catalyst for creating work opportunities for women, she will protect girl child in all states of India and all countries worldwide. She will encourage women in all sectors including judiciary to make sure there will be timely justice with every citizen of the country without any discrimination. She will promote women, child development and zero down crime.

Shri Jyotiraditya M Scindia

If in future Shri JM Scindia will become Prime Minister of India. He will boost government & industry organisations equally. He will do justice with all states of India, he will facilitate quick solutions for problems by the support of dialogues instead of wasting time, resources of central and state government. He will restore the glory of government, judiciary by making them citizen centric, lawful, dutiful - increasing citizen government connect in all states of India.

Detailed whitepaper is available for government, industry, judiciary organisations worldwide.

www.zournii.co.in
